

2024 JLPW VISITING INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME

Term: 20 July 2024 to 20 October 2024

Positions available: Up to 10 interns.

About the programme:

The JLPW Visiting Internship Programme has been in existence since 2008. To date, approximately 200 students have participated in this programme and the JLPW Online Internship Programme.

Visiting interns are given the opportunity to attend lectures given by lawyers of the firm; attend meetings with clients; visit legal institutions; and review case files. Visiting interns are also given assignments such as translation of legal and commercial contracts and due diligence.

At the conclusion of the programme, visiting interns are required to present a summary of their experience during their internship and the changes in their views of Malaysia compared to their views before the visiting internship.

The programme seeks to encourage visiting students to learn and understand Malaysian law and the legal practice in Malaysia.

Our previous interns' feedback on the programme is available at the link below.
