

Winter school in Switzerland 'International Law and Diplomacy from Inside'

Spend your winter holidays with benefits!

On the 26st of January the Winter School 'International Law and Diplomacy from Inside' will start in Geneva

By taking part in this programme you will:

- acquire up-to-date knowledge of international law, diplomacy, trade restrictions in international transactions;
- Learn to work with business correspondence and commercial documentation in English;
- gain access to a multimedia Legal and Business English course and charts reflecting the content of all institutions studied;
- Visit international organisations and learn about their work;
- Meet experts practising in various areas of international law.

During the 10 days you will be expected to:

- ✓ Visiting 5 international organisations (United Nations, World Trade Organisation, World Meteorological Organisation, International Olympic Committee, World Intellectual Property Organisation), learning about their work and meeting practitioners.
- ✓ Lectures by Swiss School teachers, excursions on the programme (tour of Geneva, Geneva Cathedral and climbing to the observation deck; visit to Chillon Castle; Red Cross Museum).
- ✓ Visit to the Supreme Court of Switzerland;
- ✓ International certificate;
- ✓ Trip to Lausanne | Vevey and much more.

Swiss School provides visa assistance.

📱 To find out all details about the Winter School in Geneva, conditions of participation and to apply, please visit: (<https://www.ssir.swiss/ssws/>).

You can ask any questions you may have:

Tel: 8 800 302 80 79

Telegram : +41 79 965 25 00

Email: summer@ssir.swiss